PRESENTS

Ethics and the CIA

Frank Hofmann
Graduate School of Public and International Affairs
3:15 PM
Friday, October 30, 2009
3500 Cathedral of Learning

Mr. Hofmann entered the Central Intelligence Agency after a stint as a Foreign Service Officer in the US Department of State. Over the course of three decades he served as an operations officer in East Asia, Latin America, Europe, the US, and most recently in South Asia. He also served at CIA Headquarters and as a tradecraft instructor for newly-hired officers. Mr. Hofmann has been the CIA's "Officer-in-Residence" at the University of Pittsburgh since the 2007 fall semester. Do not miss this inside perspective on CIA practices and accountability. This talk is open only to Pitt students and faculty.

ALL ARE WELCOME!
